Today, students and staff celebrated our Founders' Day. The whole school community walked to St Wilfrid's, where our school was originally located, to come together to celebrate the conception of our school in 1566. Our outgoing student leadership team gave inspirational speeches, with musical performances from each of our houses (Cecil, Spanning and Travers) and our choir accompanied by the orchestra. The school all joined together in a rousing rendition of our school song to raise the spirits on a particularly damp day.

Finally, I would like to take this opportunity to extend my heartfelt thanks to Mr Rigarlsford whose term of office, as a parent governor, has come to an end. Mr Rigarlsford has been an exceptional friend to the school throughout his time as a governor. He has been a trusted confidant and an exceptional critical friend to me as Headteacher, providing support and challenge in equal measure and on behalf of you as parents. His presence in school will be missed. I wish him every success in his future endeavours, and extend my warmest thanks for his time, which he has given liberally and willingly.

Cor unum, via una
