Queen Elizabeth's Grammar, Alford are looking to appoint a part-time Teacher Music for September 2025. For the right candidate there is the option of a TLR and leading the department. We are looking for a colleague who:

- Is a qualified teacher and outstanding practitioner.
- Has high expectations.
- Has extensive knowledge of the subject and is suitably qualified to teach Music to A Level.
- Has the ability to inspire and motivate students and colleagues.
- Has a track record of forming very good working relationships with pupils, parents and staff.
- Is committed to extra-curricular music activities and performances.

We are looking for a teacher ideally to lead our department and work with an established and motivated group of peripatetic teachers. We need an enthusiastic practitioner with recent experience of teaching this subject in mainstream or special schools, who can adapt the Music curriculum to meet the needs of our students. In return we can offer a workplace with experienced, supportive and professional colleagues dedicated to delivering the best education possible. We aim to develop all our staff to their full potential and offer opportunity for continued professional development.

Queen Elizabeth's is a Selective Academy and, is located in the small, rural town of Alford. Queen Elizabeth's is a very friendly and caring community in which pupils are known and valued individually. The atmosphere is calm, happy and purposeful; standards of attainment, behaviour and dress are high, and we are proud of our reputation as one of the top schools in the East Midlands whilst offering a holistic, supportive approach to education.
