

An 11-18 Co-educational Grammar School
Number on roll: 536

Part-time Religious Studies Teacher (0.6 FTE) Required for September 2025

Queen Elizabeth's Grammar, Alford are looking to appoint a part-time teacher of Religious Studies for September 2025. We are looking for a colleague who is:

- A qualified teacher and outstanding practitioner.
- A talented and dynamic teacher who can teach at KS3, KS4 and potentially KS5.
- Energetic and has the ability to inspire and motivate students.
- Keen to join a successful and collaborative department with good resources.

In return we can offer a workplace with experienced, supportive and professional colleagues dedicated to delivering the best education possible. We aim to develop all our staff to their full potential and offer opportunity for continued professional development.

The Religious Studies department attains good results with experienced and friendly staff. It currently comprises a Subject Leader and one part time teacher. We follow the OCR exam board course and offer A Level Philosophy Ethics and Christian Thought to our sixth form students.

Queen Elizabeth's is a Selective Academy, currently having 536 pupils on roll and is located in the small, rural town of Alford. We are a friendly and caring community in which pupils are known and valued individually. The atmosphere is calm, happy and purposeful; standards of attainment, behaviour and dress are high, and we are proud of our reputation as one of the top schools in the East Midlands whilst offering a holistic, supportive approach to education.

Applications are welcome from ECT and MPS teachers.
