A Selective Academy

An 11-18 Co-educational Grammar School
Number on roll: 530 (including 102 in the sixth form)

Teacher of Modern Foreign Languages Required for September 2024 (Maternity Cover)

Queen Elizabeth's Grammar, Alford are seeking to appoint a full-time, or part-time, teacher of Teacher of Modern Foreign Languages on a one-year fixed term contract to cover maternity leave from 1 September 2024. Candidates will need to be able to teach German, with the ability also to deliver French desirable. We are looking for a colleague who is:

- A qualified teacher and outstanding practitioner.
- A talented and dynamic teacher who can teach at KS3, KS4 and KS5.
- Passionate about their subject.
- Energetic and able to inspire and motivate students.
- Keen to join a successful and collaborative teaching team.

In return we can offer a workplace with experienced, supportive and professional colleagues dedicated to delivering the best education possible. We aim to develop all our staff to their full potential and offer opportunity for continued professional development. The Modern Foreign Languages department currently comprises a subject leader, one full time teacher and three part time teachers. We work to a 25-period week with 1-hour lessons. Pupils currently learn either French, German or Spanish up to GCSE. We currently have small A level groups in French, German and Spanish using AQA for both GCSE and A Level.

Queen Elizabeth's is a Selective Academy, currently having 530 pupils on roll and is located in the small, rural town of Alford. We are a friendly and caring community in which pupils are known and valued individually. The atmosphere is calm, happy and purposeful; standards of attainment, behaviour and dress are good, and we are proud of our reputation as one of the top schools in the East Midlands whilst offering a holistic, supportive approach to education.
